BRIDAL SHOWER

The Ring Game

Take a ring, watch your words

1. Take one ring and put it on.
2. Don’t say “bride” or “wedding.”
3. Hear someone say one? Take their ring. The most rings at the end wins.
4. Also off limits: _____

BRIDAL SHOWER

Ring Hunt

Rings are hidden all around the room

1. Find as many rings as you can.
2. Keep the ones you find in your cup or bag.
3. The hunt ends at: _____
4. The most rings wins.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Ring Count Sheet

Count after the gifts. Write down each guest's rings: the most rings wins. For a tie, use a spare prize or one round of rock, paper, scissors.

Host Checklist

Everything for the ring game and the ring hunt. Decide the house rules before you start and write them on the sign.

Before the party

- [ ] Plastic rings: one per guest, plus extras
- [ ] Print the sign, set it by the door
- [ ] A bowl or tray for the rings
- [ ] One prize, plus a spare for a tie
- [ ] Pick your banned words

House rules

- [ ] Same slip caught twice: first to say it
- [ ] No ring left: you can still catch others
- [ ] Give the bride a ring too
- [ ] Only the exact words on the sign count
- [ ] Late arrivals take a ring from the extras

During the party

- [ ] Start once most guests are there
- [ ] Read the rules out loud once
- [ ] Count the rings after the gifts
- [ ] Tie: spare prize or rock, paper, scissors

Ring hunt

- [ ] Three to five rings per guest
- [ ] Mix easy and harder hiding spots
- [ ] Skip breakable or unsafe spots
- [ ] A cup or bag for each guest
- [ ] Write the end time on the sign

After

- [ ] Keep spare rings away from toddlers
- [ ] Save the leftovers for another game
