BRIDAL SHOWER

How to Play

Play 15 to 20 questions or all 30 · one point per match

1. A few days before, give the groom his sheets. Copy his answers onto the host sheet.
2. Hide his answers from the bride. Seat her up front; give each guest a sheet and a pen.
3. Read a question. Guests write their guess, then the bride answers the way he would.
4. Read his answer. A match is a point for the bride. Guests score their own matches.
5. Same meaning counts. Can’t agree? The bride gets the point.
6. Most guest points wins. Tie? Closest guess of how many are invited to the wedding.

Groom's Questions: Part 1
